Quartely reporting to top management on results from climate and energy work

Annual review of climate and energy related aspects (as a part of environmental aspects)

Establishing and continuously improving climate and energy management system

Following-up Bergen Vann's goals, give recommendations for updating of existing or introducing new measures and objectives

Contributing to the development of the overall climate and energy strategy for the entire municipality of Bergen and for the water and sanitation sector

Documentation: following, updating and reporting

Energy: energy consumption

Carbon footprint monitoring

Cooperation with external stakeholders

Climate and energy coordination group

Cooperation with internal stakeholders
Energy Management

Carbon footprint calculations

Executive: Reporting, Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) and Environmental Aspects

Mapping of energy consumption

Visualization and systematization

Propositions for energy-related measures or projects for various parts of the value chain

Existing Infrastructure

- Reduction of energy consumption
- Heat recovery
- Energy production

Facility: water, sewage, biogas

Water distribution and sewage collection systems

Administration facilities